youth leadership conference 2011

a tremendous opportunity for young people to learn while having fun and making friends that last a lifetime

The SC Farm Bureau Youth Leadership Conference is sponsored by the SCFB Women's Leadership Committee and is open to Farm Bureau members who are rising high school juniors and/or seniors.

1. Each county is encouraged to select four representatives. A $75.00 non-refundable registration fee is required for each participant. The fee is due when each participant registers at their county Farm Bureau office.
2. Members of the SCFB Women's Leadership Committee and SCFB Federation staff will serve as chaperones.
3. You must fill out the accompanying medical form and the photo release form. They must be signed by a parent or guardian.

Please note on the medical release form, participants do not need an examination by a physician, only the date of their last tetanus immunization.

4. We ask that no personal vehicles be driven during the duration of camp. It is the responsibility of the participant to arrange transportation to and from the conference.
